Outside Pocket Koskin

Detachable three-part document case made of Koskin!

The detachable document case made of Koskin with its three separate document compartments enhances your flexibility in on-site contact with customers. With a simple flip of the wrist, the handy case can be detached from your DataBox Allround and carry important documents safe and easy without the Notebook case, as the document case features a lockable latch. The case is attached to the outside of the DataBox Allround with Velcro, allowing you to access documents without opening the main case. The detachable document case is optionally available for DataBox Allround and DataBox Allround XL.
